

The Same Flame CD order form

Composed by former Thomas Hewitt Jones, BBC Young Composer of the Year, with lyrics by Matt Harvey, poet, Choral Director David Ogden conducts The Same Flame sung by six choirs: Bristol's highly acclaimed Exultate Singers; N. Somerset's chamber choir, The Trinity Singers; Churchill Academy Chamber Choir; Churchill, Sandford and Wrington Primary School Choirs (All Weather Friends) accompanied by distinguished pianist Christine Stevenson.

Commissioned by Churchill Music! with support from the National Lottery through Arts Council England, the five-song cycle was inspired by Baron de Coubertin's ideals of Olympism which gave rise to the modern Olympic values: Inspiration, Respect, Equality, Courage, Determination, Friendship and Excellence.

1. You left your mark on me (Inspiration)
2. Respectfully Yours (Respect and Equality)
3. Guts and Grace (Courage and Determination)
4. All Weather Friends (Friendship)
5. Excellence (Excellence)

"Keep the flame alive" Daily Telegraph

"Combines wit with excitement"
James Eggleston, Boosey & Hawkes, Publisher

"..fantastic words by Matt Harvey which Thomas Hewitt Jones has set in a very entertaining, vibrant and energetic way and I hope that this piece will be taken up by lots of choirs around the world."
Choral Director David Ogden

"I loved it. It has really boosted my confidence in singing." Choir member, Sandford Primary School.
